DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gunjima et al (RE38,305).

3. Gunjima discloses a light guide plate (34); at least a light source disposed at least one side of the light guide plate (3); a diffusion plate (8)and; a reflection polarizer (9, col.5 lines 3-16), which lets light polarized in one certain direction pass (abstract), and reflects light polarized in a direction perpendicular to the one certain direction; wherein the light guide plate, the diffusion plate and the reflection polarizer are stacked up one on top of the other, and a plurality of prisms (7) are disposed on a surface of the diffusion plate, which thereby defining a plurality of V-shaped grooves.

- The plurality of prisms are disposed parallel to one another (fig.3)
- The parallel prisms are spaced apart at equal intervals;
- The prisms are each in shape of a pyramid and are distributed evenly;
- A reflection plate is disposed under the light guide plate (4);
- A reflection film is formed on the light guide plate (4).

Art Unit: 2875

- A light source cover which surrounds the light source on three sides (2);
- The light guide plate is flat plate.
- A brightness enhancement film is disposed between the diffusion plate and the reflection polarizer (6c).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gunjima et al.

6. Gunjima discloses the claimed invention except for the recitation of the light guide plate is a shape of a wedge. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a wedge shaped light guide in the device of Gunjima since wedge shaped light guides are old and well known in the LCD art for the purpose of providing a light guide with a desired light distribution other than that of a planar.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 11-12 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2875

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art cited of record does not disclose the diffusion plate disposed on a surface of the diffusion plate in combination with the other elements of the LCD display.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 06/17/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the LCD of Gunjima does not teach a reflecting polarizer and this is the basis on which claims 1-10 should be allowed. The examiner would like to direct applicant's attention to column 5 lines 3-16 of Gunjima that discloses "the polarized light converting means composed of a guide and light reflection sheet, in which the light reflecting plane is employed in such a construction, the separated polarized light can be reused and the direction of polarization is changed in the reflection. Accordingly the light reflecting plane operates as the polarized light converting means in cooperation with the polarized light separating sheet", hence satisfying applicant's limitation of a "reflecting polarizer".

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
